FINANCIAL HARDSHIP IN SEQUATCHIE COUNTY

ALICE

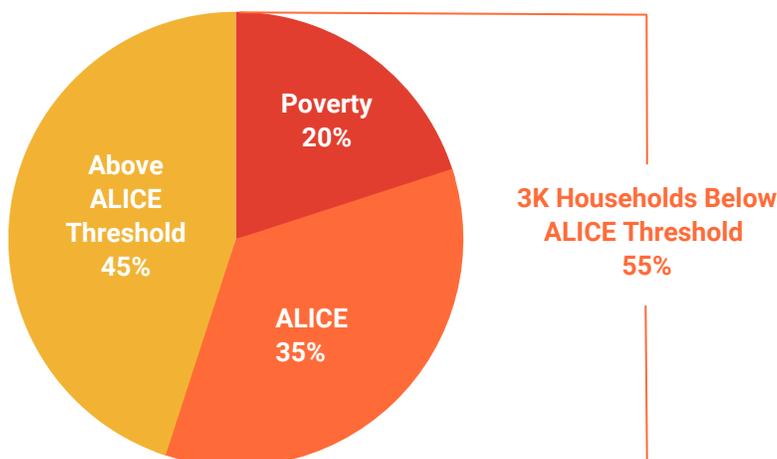

Asset Limited, Income Constrained, Employed

Neighbors earning above the poverty level
but still living paycheck to paycheck

WHILE CONDITIONS HAVE IMPROVED FOR SOME FAMILIES IN SEQUATCHIE COUNTY, MANY CONTINUE TO STRUGGLE, ESPECIALLY AS WAGES FAIL TO KEEP PACE WITH THE RISING COST OF HOUSEHOLD ESSENTIALS INCLUDING HOUSING, CHILD CARE, FOOD, TRANSPORTATION, AND HEALTH CARE.

This report provides a local snapshot of families struggling to make ends meet using the Federal Poverty Level and ALICE metrics. Together, these indicators provide an inclusive view of financial hardship in our community.

ABOUT UNITED FOR ALICE AND OUR PARTNERS

ALICE in the Crosscurrents: COVID and Financial Hardship in Tennessee is produced by United Ways of Tennessee in partnership with United For ALICE, a driver of innovative research and action around financial hardship for ALICE (Asset Limited, Income Constrained, Employed) households. With a commitment to racial and economic justice, this research is shared with foundations, government, corporations, and other nonprofits, to inform policy and promote positive change. The grassroots ALICE movement, led by United Way of Northern New Jersey, has spread to 27 states and the District of Columbia. Learn more about the ALICE movement here.

To create the ALICE Reports, our team of researchers works with Research Advisory Committees composed of experts from our partner states. This work is guided by our rigorous methodology, which is updated biennially with experts from across our Research Advisory Committees.
